THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA AT CHAPEL HILL

CAROLINA CENTER for JEWISH STUDIES

Graduate Student Research and Travel Grant Application Form

Deadline: 5:00 p.m. on February 25, 2019

With these grants, the Carolina Center for Jewish Studies supports graduate student research and travel, including travel to present papers at scholarly meetings. This grant can be used to reimburse travel costs pertaining to research projects and/or costs for materials required for research, as well as to reimburse costs for travel, room, board, and registration costs at domestic or international conferences. Applicants must be graduate students working on a topic in Jewish Studies. Students applying for grants to present at a conference must already have a paper on a Jewish Studies topic accepted for delivery at an academic conference. Please note that for scholarly meetings, the maximum amount of support is $1,000 for a domestic conference and $2,000 for an international conference.

Please consult jewishstudies.unc.edu for grant information, and contact jewishstudies@unc.edu if you have questions.

Please email the completed application as a single PDF file to jewishstudies@unc.edu no later than 5:00 p.m. on February 25, 2019.
