Eli N. Evans Distinguished Lecture in Jewish Studies
Feb. 10, 7:30 p.m. / William and Ida Friday Center for Continuing Education

ERIC CLINE, professor at The George Washington University and co-director of the Megiddo Expedition, will present an illustrated overview of excavations at the Mount of Megiddo, the actual physical location for Armageddon, the cataclysmic battle between good and evil, including a large Early Bronze Age temple, a palace and city gate, and unexpected finds from the 1948 War of Independence.

Allen Ginsberg and Kaddish
April 7, 7:30 p.m. / William and Ida Friday Center for Continuing Education

BILL MORGAN, renowned biographer of Allen Ginsberg, will explore what is arguably the poet’s greatest work, “Kaddish for Naomì Ginsberg,” one of the most emotional poems of the 20th century which Allen Ginsberg penned when a traditional mourner’s kaddish could not be recited following his mother’s death. Morgan will share photographs from the family’s personal albums while discussing Naomì’s life and Allen Ginsberg’s writing.

This lecture is made possible by a grant from the Charles H. Revson Foundation in honor of Eli N. Evans, ’58.
