Frances Carol Eizenstat Student Travel Grant Application Form

Deadline: 5:00 p.m. on February 25, 2019

With these grants, the Carolina Center for Jewish Studies supports undergraduate and graduate student travel to sites in Eastern Europe, the Middle East and around the world that are significant for understanding modern Jewish history. This grant can be used to reimburse travel costs pertaining to research projects and/or costs for materials required for research as well as to reimburse costs for travel, room, board, and registration fees at domestic or international conferences. Students applying for grants to present at a conference must already have a paper on a Jewish Studies topic accepted for delivery at an academic conference. Please note that for scholarly meetings, the maximum amount of support is $1,000 for a domestic conference and $1,200 for an international conference. Applicants must be undergraduate or graduate students traveling to sites in Eastern Europe, the Middle East and around the world that are significant for understanding modern Jewish history. Please consult jewishstudies.unc.edu for grant information, and contact jewishstudies@unc.edu if you have questions.

Please email the completed application as a single PDF file to jewishstudies@unc.edu no later than 5:00 p.m. on February 25, 2019
