Graduate Student Recruitment Top-Up Grants ~ Spring 2020
for Academic Year 2020-2021
Application Deadline: 5:00 p.m. on January 24, 2020

Thanks to generous private support, the Carolina Center for Jewish Studies will be offering two top-up stipends for graduate student recruitment for the 2020-2021 academic year. The Jewish Studies Top Up grant is a $7,000 stipend to enhance what departments can offer prospective graduate students, with half given each semester of the student’s first year. Departments may nominate prospective graduate students who have an academic and/or research interest related to the field of Jewish Studies. Departments may nominate up to two students for this award.

Nominations should consist of a single PDF including: a statement of support from the DGS for the student, including why the student’s academic history or research interest appeals to your department and why you want the student in your graduate program, as well as a statement of the level of financial support the department is prepared to offer the student. The student’s interest in a topic related to the field of Jewish Studies should be highlighted. In the case of departments nominating two students, a detailed ranking of the nominees should also be provided.

Important changes for this year:
- Take note of the new email address for submitting your application. The faculty review committee will not receive any applications that are sent to a different email account. Send your proposals before the stated deadline to: grants_jewishstudies@unc.edu.
- If you have questions, please email us at the same account: grants_jewishstudies@unc.edu.
